1. Membership: Privileges and Duties of Member Teams

- 1.1. According to IGLA Bylaws, IGLA is open to aquatics teams:
  - 1.1.1. Who pay annual dues and complete an annual registration packet, and
  - 1.1.2. Whose constitution, statutes, and Bylaws are in accordance with IGLA's Bylaws, Policies, and Procedures. The Board of Directors has the right to review the applying team's Bylaws, Statutes, and Constitutions before accepting the team as a member.
- 1.2. Dues are paid to the current IGLA Treasurer
- 1.3. The number of votes and the amount of the dues for each team shall be determined by a dues structure on team size
- 1.4. The current table for dues structure is

Team Size	Number of Votes	Dues
Individual	0	USD 15.00
1-5	1	USD 30.00
6-24	2	USD 60.00
25-49	3	USD 125.00
50+	4	USD 250.00

The second column shows the number of representatives allotted to that team category.

- 1.5. Teams are encouraged, but not required, to register in the category corresponding to their actual size. Teams wishing to save money or teams not interested in having representation proportional to their actual size may choose to register in a smaller category. A team shall not register in a category larger than its actual size.
- 1.6. Teams with multiple aquatic disciplines are encouraged to register for each discipline, following the table according to its size, in each of the disciplines. This includes swimming, diving, water polo and/or synchronized swimming.
- 1.7. The renewal member dues deadline will be February 1st

- 1.8. In sake of fairness and administration simplicity, there will be a 25% penalty on current dues with a minimum penalty of USD 10.00, for teams failing to register by the deadline set in 1.7. This penalty applies only to current members and not to new members or former members with lapsed membership greater than one fiscal year.
- 1.9. New members or former members with lapsed membership greater than one fiscal year may join and pay without penalty any time during the year.
- 1.10. All member teams commit themselves to respect all rules and regulations contained in the IGLA Bylaws, in this P&P Manual, in the Rules and Recommendations Booklet for IGLA Championships and Gay Games, or in any other official IGLA document approved by the general membership.
- 1.11. Any time a vote is required, a team is entitled to a maximum number of votes established in the dues structure table in point 1.4. One person cannot cast more than one vote. Therefore, the number of votes allotted to a team equals the number of its team reps present at the General Meeting (1 person = 1 vote). This means that some of a team's votes may be lost if any/some of its representatives are absent from the General Meeting.
See also point 2.4.2 for change of team representatives.
- 1.12. Member teams will receive all IGLA official correspondence and the IGLA newsletter through their team representatives. One copy of each correspondence will be sent to each team representative. Correspondence may be sent either through e-mail or snail mail format.
- 1.13. Member teams having a team rep with an E-mail address (see 2.5 for definition), will have their rep added to the official IGLA e-mail list maintained by the IGLA's Communications Officer if one is appointed, by the Secretary, otherwise.
- 1.14. New members or past members with lapsed membership greater than one year, will be directed to a "Welcome Page" on the IGLA website containing:
  - (1) A welcome letter;
  - (2) A copy of IGLA Bylaws;
  - (3) A copy of the IGLA Roster;
  - (4) A copy of the Promo List;
  - (5) A copy of this Policies and Procedures Manual;
  - (6) A copy of the Rules and Recommendations Booklet for IGLA Championships and Gay Games Aquatics Competitions;

(7) A copy of any document published by IGLA and useful for a better knowledge of the organization;

(8) The annual registration form for that year

The welcome package will be sent by the Secretary. The Secretary, as part of their duties, will maintain the most current versions of the aforementioned forms.

1.15. The Registration/Renewal Form should contain:

(1) Table for dues structure;

(2) Current address of IGLA Treasurer and Secretary;

(3) Space for the name, address, phone, and e-mail addresses of up to 4 team representatives

At the GM, committees will report to the membership about their activities, showing what goals have been achieved and which policies are proposed for approval. #### 4.14. IGLA Leadership Development Committee

4.14.1. Purpose

4.14.1.1. The IGLA Leadership Development Committee shall ensure that there are skilled and experienced people standing for election to the IGLA Board of Directors at the IGLA General Meeting, and recruit capable individuals to serve as Committee Chairs

4.14.1.2. In the case of the Board of Directors, the committee will work "behind the scenes" by encouraging candidates to run for positions and finding team representatives to nominate candidates. It will not actually nominate candidates

4.14.2. Desired skills of board members and committee members

4.14.2.1. The IGLA Board shall decide each year the skills required of new officers and committee chair, and inform the IGLA Leadership Development Committee of its needs

4.14.3. Timeline

4.14.4. Membership of IGLA leadership development committee

4.14.4.1. The membership should consist of

- 4.14.4.1.4. No person who is considering standing for a board position may be a member of the IGLA Leadership Development Committee. However, a member of the committee may be considered to serve as a Committee Chair. If, during the process of finding candidates, a committee member decides to stand for office, the committee member should immediately resign from the committee. The IGLA Co-Presidents will appoint a replacement, in consultation with the IGLA Board.

4.14.5. General tasks of committee

- 4.14.5.1. Canvass incumbent members of the Board and current Committee Chairs on their intentions for the coming year.

- 4.14.5.3. When searching for candidates, the committee shall bear in mind the current and desired gender and geographic composition of the full board and committee chairs. Finding women candidates should be a priority. It is desirable to encourage more than one candidate for each position to stand for election.
- 4.14.5.4. When evaluating potential candidates, the committee should make sure the candidates are active members of their respective aquatic community.
- 4.14.5.5. The committee should respect recommendations in the Policy and Procedures book, including the suggestion that candidates should have been active for at least one year on an IGLA committee. This is particularly critical for Committee Chairs.

4.14.6. Publicity of vacancies

- 4.14.6.1. The IGLA Leadership Development Committee should widely solicit suggested nominations, using Wetnotes, IGLA email lists, and the IGLA web site to spread the word about open positions.

4.14.7. Procedure at general meeting for electing board members

- 4.14.7.1. The committee will not make formal recommendations or endorsements of any candidate.

4.14.7.3. The IGLA Leadership Development Committee should refrain from making statements in favor of candidates at the General Meeting.

4.14.7.4. IGLA Leadership Development Committee members must be team reps to vote in an election.

4.14.8. Procedure for choosing committee chairs

4.14.8.1. Committee Chairs are usually chosen on a more informal basis. Individuals who are interested in serving on committees should attend their respective committee meetings and express interest in that forum. Each Committee's recommendation will then be forwarded to the Board for approval

Once women represent 50% of all IGLA participants, this committee will be dissolved.
- 11.2. IGLA encourages the female/male ratio in the composition of the Board to be at least consistent with the female/male ratio of the overall IGLA membership.
- 11.3. IGLA requires meet organizers to make reasonable efforts to ensure that the leadership of meets and IGLA sponsored events include women. (see Rules and Recommendations Booklet, IGR 1.1.1)
- 11.4. IGLA encourages meet organizers to make reasonable efforts to attract women to participate in IGLA sponsored events. (see Rules and Recommendations Booklet, IGR 1.1.2)
